DEDICATION

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1953, wish to dedicate this annual to Mr. Clifford W. Cunningham, our advisor, in appreciation of all the guidance and good judgment he has shown. For three years he has lead our class through many hardships as well as good times. We will never be able to repay him for the devotion he has given us. This annual is only a small token of our appreciation, but the feeling with which it is dedicated is heartfelt.

CLASS PROPHECY

Our first stop is New York where we see none other than our own Ed Bair, prominent business tycoon of the day. We see Mary Ann Wadjun, his private secretary, hard at work with Mr. Bair's various clients, Veda Clark, Emily Jean Landry, Mary Helen Medve. In the outer office we find Don Berlin, Mike Costick and Bill DeSantis trying to get those books to balance.

While in New York we decided to visit the famous scientific laboratory where James Fedorchak is the very famous atomic scientist of the day. Mixing Prof. Fedorchak's latest wonder formula are John Curry, John Rosile and Ronnie Schmidt, his three most able assistants.

No tour would be complete without a tour of the famous N. B. C. television station in New York. Charles Gardinier meets us at the door and takes us to see three members of the Class of '53 who have made good in the T.V. field. First we see Rosemary who is now the stand-in for "My Friend Irma." While viewing the studio we run into Paul Mahon, who is now starring in the "Superman Series." Vince and his "Stardusters" are hard at work in the projection room.

We decide to stop at the "Stork Club" for dinner where we see none other than Bob Ressler, who is chief chef, and Mina Jean, who is now a professional waitress who made good.

As we climb on our carpet to continue the tour westward we decide to stop at the nation's capitol to look up a few of the other Seniors of '53. Ohio's two Senators Bill Waltman and Don Landy are hard at work trying to get a bill passed for "COKE" to run in all school fountains. We notice Bob Walker is exhibiting his latest masterpieces in the Smithsonian Institute.

Next on our list is Chicago, the famous windy city, where we find quite a few of our former classmates. We see posters of "Wimp," who is now a professional wrestler and dares anyone to defy him. Don Pettitt, who is running for Mayor, is making a speech to his attentive crowd. Listening to his powerful words we see Dolores Puskar, Mary Romo, Shirley Tickey, and Doris Neider all trying to make their kids behave. Riding his motorcycle to keep the crowd intact we see John O'Conner, who is chief of police. While in Chicago we hear that Bob Castner is the new mattress tester at Marshall Fields.

As our carpet moves on westward we view Ed and Doris leaving their prosperous cattle ranch to listen to Rev. Rex Welk deliver one of his finer sermons of the day. Also in the congregation we see Barbara Walts, Sally Popa, and Annabelle Wells all happily married by now.

Our next stop is Hollywood where we see quite a few of our Seniors of '53. "Red" Ensley, our handsome leading man, is rehearsing with Betty Pannunzio, the glamorous star of stage and screen. Russ Webb is busy behind the cameras photographing Jane, our lovely cheesecake queen. "Bev" Wills, head of the make-up department is also hard at work.

On the next "set" we hear Ray Cossick, who has just robbed Perry Como of a job, singing for his new movie. He is ably accompanied by Shirley Bowers.

While in town we decided to visit the circus and are surprised to recognize quite a few faces. Pat Camuso, the barker, is calling the crowd into the big top for the show is about to start. As we enter we see Ray Shelton and Jim Castner trying to get their elephants calmed down for the parade around the ring. Jack Houy has his trained seals ready for Ring No. 1 and Mike Phillips is entering Ring No. 2 with his dog act. Could that be our own Nancy Klug who is doing the daring stunts on the trapeze? Ruth Horne is in the ring with her gymnastic team, and Delaine is the pretty bare-back rider on the white horse.

Ringmaster Tom Jones is introducing Vince Rosile and his juggling act while the No. 1 clown, Don Hill, has the crowd in hysterics. Enjoying his funny antics are Joan Hettrick, Alice Gardner, Florence Wilson and Norma Doyle. Ed Patrick is announcing the famous "Devil Riders," Ralph Trail, Bob Smelko, Tom Blakely, Ben Slemons, and George McKnight. These "Daredevils" thrilled everyone with their high speeds.

Up the coast of California we go to Los Angeles where we see Dr. Jim Kutsko and his private nurse, Jackie Ritenour, hard at work in the general hospital. Also on the staff we see Shirley Mason, Marlene Pritchard, and Mary Louise Tiday. Lab Technician Judy Hamill is hard at work on the next floor. Carol Rae, receptionist, is talking to Private Detective Fred Coller, who is just checking up on the patients from last night's shooting.

Taking a side trip to Mexico we visit the Bull Fights to see John Pappa, the toreador, ably assisted by Ed Madeline, Picador, and Bill Klucher, Mateador.

Taking the famous Pan American flight from Mexico City to Miami Beach our charming Stewardess Pat Bartko, assists us in fastening our safety belts for the landing. Stopping in at the Ocean View Room of the Sherry-Netherland Hotel, we find Shirley Tribley and her husband dancing to the music of Harry James' Band with Mike Patrick as first trumpeteer.

Stopping in at the orange groves of Tampa we see Ken Arnett and Jim Ross crating this year's fine crop of oranges.

Passing through Atlantic City we find Pat Edwards and Virginia May competing for honors in the "Miss America" contest.

Upon boarding the train out of Atlantic City for Columbus we are helped up the steps by James Hubbard, the conductor. Landing in Columbus in time for the NEO Basketball tournament, we take seats next to Don Fedor and Bill Oakley who have come down to see George Praznick's and Dale May's championship Hubbard basketball team. We glance over to the score keeper's bench and see Richard Huish keeping time. We stop for a short visit at the Ohio State campus where Mary Jane Lehn and Alice Najem, happy coeds, are on their way to class. Taking a side trip to Lockbourne Air Base, we see Betty Hettrick and Madelyn Jameson proudly keeping house for their Air Force spouses.

Boarding the bus to Youngstown, Don Tritt, the courteous bus driver, takes our tickets. We take seats next to Pauline Patton and Lois Pansler. Returning to Younstown, we take a shopping tour, beginning in Strouss's. On the third floor Sports Wear we were waited on by Marie Levandoski, the buyer. In the beauty saloon we find Aileen Hinerman cutting Lila Lee Oliver's hair. Passing by the employment office to see Mary Jane Newell accepting Bessie Montgomery's application for a job.

Dropping in to WBBW in time to hear the last of Nick Ferrett's Pepsodent announcement with Tom Nutter standing by in Studio C to bring us his disc jockey program.

Driving to Hubbard we stop for gas and are waited on by Carl Green, the proprietor of his own gas station and he tells us that George Whittle is the head mechanic now. Across the street we see Bill McCliment and George Smith selling used cars in their used car lot.

On returning to Hubbard we find Bob Leone, principal of H. H. S., assisted by his new secretary, Margaret Maines. Also on the teaching staff are Mary Joe McAlpin, teaching Home Economics, Tom Plumeret, psychology teacher, Mary Theresa Choppa, teaching shorthand, and Lillian Dudarewicz, teaching typing. While at the school we visit the library to see Iris, the Librarian, hard at work. Upon leaving we see Tom Johnson, the new Truant Officer, dragging in two boys who have been up to Hayman's for their daily 5th period "COKE."

We hear that Elva Faber now has her own baseball team with Mary Jane Arnett, Marie Crea, Mary Ann Krivak, and Mary Nicholas making up part of the battery.

While in Hubbard we visit the Cape Cod Dining Room to see Charlie Bundy, who is running the business, now Theresa, waiting on tables.

Thirty-Three Years of Service

MISS MARY ETHEL LYONS

After thirty-three years of service in the Hubbard school, Miss Mary Ethel Lyons will retire.

Miss Lyons came to Hubbard for the school year of 1920-21, at a time when, as now, a new high school building was just about to be completed. However, the year was begun in the old red brick building, and it was not until the year was almost at an end that excited groups of children, a few at a time, left hallway classrooms and portables and with their teachers climbed the stairs to a third floor with many finishing touches still to be put on. And so Miss Lyons' tenure began and ends with a new and progressive step in the history of Hubbard schools. A senior class of ten to a senior class of 120 also measures the progress during that time. She began when one person could teach all the commercial subjects and sometimes take on a subject in another department, even dubbin' in as a girls' basketball coach for a time.

For many years Miss Lyons was faculty advisor and business manager of the annual, and she never refused to take on an additional after school duty. Her students felt they were well trained for the office jobs offered in the community. Her loyalty to those she taught and those for whom she taught could not be questioned.

It is with regret and with a feeling that her place will be hard to fill that we must grant her wish to retire. We hope that she will thoroughly enjoy the years ahead.

Congratulations, Class of '53!

This is an inaugural year! Our own land begins a new presidential era. England assumes a new rule. And YOU open the page to a new and exciting chapter in your own life's story!

But stop for a moment before you begin! Check your equipment and understand your best dreams. Then take to the path that leads to success with confidence. There will be disappointments, of course . . . when your goal seems far off and the course rugged. But remember that many have vested their hopes in you . . . just as America looks to Ike, as England is revived by the wholesomeness of Elizabeth.

And so it is YOUR year of commencement . . . YOUR moment of challenge . . . YOUR year of inauguration! Add our name to your list of friends who are certain that you will reach the high pinnacle of joy and success.

Ed Fabian: Fishing?
Jim Ross: Nope. Just drowning worms.

Mr. White: How many sexes are there?
Jim King: Three.
Mr. White: Three! What are they?
Jim King: The male sex, the female sex, and the insects.

The youth replies, "I can."

Mr. Bailey: How is it that your homework sums were all correct.
Pat Edwards: Dad is away from home.

We have just learned of a teacher who started out poor twenty years ago, and retired with a comfortable sum of $50,000. This was acquired through industry, economy, effort, perseverance, and the death of an uncle who left him an estate valued at $49,999.37.

Mary Helen Medve: Did you get any applause?

Margaret: Yes. It sounded like a caterpillar crawling over a Persian carpet while wearing rubber shoes.

Ed Ryser (in the telephone booth): I want a box for two.

Voice (at the other end): Sorry, but we don't have boxes for two.

Ed: But isn't this the box office of the theater?

Voice: No, we are the undertakers.
